Presentation “Dragon Dreamer”

Dragon Dreaming is a playful, inspiring, encouraging and meaningful method for assisting individuals and groups who seek to make their dreams come true. As a result Dragon Dreaming offers different people different theories, tools, tips, and techniques that can be added to improve the effectiveness of their existing own work. Alternatively it can provide a pathway, a learning journey, for individuals who have yearned for some time to make a difference and live a more meaningful life by trying something new.

So Dragon Dreaming can help:

- People working with project management find inspiration and innovation for companies, organizations and all sorts of business enterprises.
- Politicians and Professionals working with urban, rural or regional development find new ideas for fostering community ownership and civic participation.
- Grassroots movements find support with proven methods for the implementation of their ideas for bringing about change in the communities to which they belong.
- Creative people and artists find methods which accommodate their own way of working that honors their talents and abilities
- Psychologists and Coaches find playful methods for building visions, planning, implementing and celebrating new projects
- Everyday individuals who may not ever have tried to do something outstanding before but who seek a pathway of making a difference in their own lives and the lives of others.

Dragon Dreaming offers simple and playful holistic methods for visionary initiation processes, planning, implementation, evaluation and celebration.

What is it?

Dragon Dreaming offers methods for the realization of creative, collaborative and sustainable projects and organizations, built upon three principles:

Personal growth – commitment to your own healing and empowerment community building – strengthening the communities of which you are a part of.

Service to the Earth – enhancing the wellbeing and flourishing of all life. Our activities are built upon a culture of a triple win-win-win. A win for ourselves personally, for the communities we live in and for the Earth as a whole.

With Dragon dreaming we are able not only to develop new skills but also may discover new sides to ourselves and deepen our relationship with life. At the same time Dragon Dreaming strengthens community, helping us to build and sustain teams based on trust and cooperation, in which communication and appreciation are especially valued. Dragon Dreaming also fosters diversity, creativity and vitality, not only for ourselves and the team but rather for the whole world. Dragon Dreaming creates sustainability.

Dragon Dreaming offers simple and playful methods for visionary processes, planning, implementation and evaluation.
